SOUVENIR MAGAZINE LAUNCH

The image shows a promotional event for the 'Mak@90' Souvenir Magazine. On the left, a large white banner displays the magazine's title 'Mak@90' in red and green, with the subtitle 'SOUVENIR MAGAZINE LAUNCH' below it. The banner also features a smaller image of the magazine cover, which includes the word 'INVESTING' in red and a photograph of a large, modern building. To the right of the banner, four individuals are standing on a green carpeted area. A woman in a dark dress with a gold sash is on the far left, and three men in suits are to her right. The man in the center-right is holding a copy of the magazine. The background is dark, suggesting an evening event, with a building and other people visible in the distance.
